INSTITUTE FOR THE WORKS OF RELIGION

STATUTES

CHAPTER I

NAME, PURPOSE AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE INSTITUTE

Art. 1

§1. The Institute for the Works of Religion (hereinafter “the Institute”) enjoys public canonical juridical personality.

§2. It has its registered offices in the Vatican City State and has no subsidiaries or branches.

Art. 2

§1. The purpose of the Institute is to provide for custody and administration of movable and immovable assets transferred or entrusted to it by natural or legal persons, and intended for works of religion or charity.

§2. The Institute therefore receives assets intended, at least in part or for the future, for the purposes defined in the above clause, according to the legitimately established procedures.

§3. The Institute may accept deposits of assets from entities and persons of the Holy See and the Vatican City State.

Art. 3

§1. The Institute is responsible for the custody and administration of the assets received.

§2. This responsibility is regulated by Canon Law provisions, the Vatican City State legislation in force, the provisions of these Statutes and the implementing Regulations.

§3. For any controversy, as a rule, the competent court will be that of the Vatican City State.

CHAPTER II

ORGANISATION OF THE INSTITUTE

Art. 4

The Institute has the following bodies:

- The Cardinals' Commission
- The Prelate
- The Board of Superintendence
- The Directorate

CHAPTER III

THE CARDINALS' COMMISSION

Art. 5

§1. The Cardinals' Commission is made up of five Cardinals appointed by the Holy Father and it is chaired by a Cardinal designated by the Members of the Commission itself.

§2. The Members of the Commission are appointed for a five-year term, renewable once.

§3. If a Member of the Commission dies, becomes incapacitated or leaves office for whatever reason before his term expires, the Holy Father shall provide for his replacement. The new Member will remain in office until the end of the Commission's term.

Art. 6

§1. Meetings of the Cardinals' Commission are convened by the Cardinal President at least twice a year and on any other occasion he deems appropriate.

§2. As a rule, each Cardinal and the Prelate must be notified of the meeting and provided with its agenda at least ten days before the meeting takes place, except in urgent cases.

Art. 7

§1. For the Commission's meetings to be valid, at least three Cardinals must be present. Decisions are to be made by absolute majority of votes of the Cardinals present or, when only three Cardinals are present, unanimously.

§2. The minutes of each meeting are to be drawn up by the Prelate in his capacity as Secretary of the Commission; they are to be read out to those present and approved by them at the end of each meeting.

§3. The minutes of each meeting, approved and duly signed by the Cardinal President and by the Prelate in his capacity as Secretary, shall be entered into the Register of Minutes of the Meetings of the Cardinals' Commission that will be kept in the Commission's archives at the Prelate's office.

Art. 8

§1. The Cardinals' Commission oversees the Institute's adherence to its statutory norms.

§2. The Commission appoints and dismisses members of the Board of Superintendence and, on the proposal of the Board, its President and Vice-President.

§3. In addition, the Cardinals' Commission:

- a) having examined the Financial Statements and taking into consideration the Institute's minimum capital requirements, decides on the allocation of earnings;
- b) proposes statutory amendments to the Higher Authority;

- c) determines the remuneration of the Members of the Board of Superintendence;
- d) approves the appointment and dismissal of the Director and Vice-Director as decided by the Board of Superintendence;
- e) appoints, at the proposal of the Board of Superintendence, the external auditor (natural person or company) mandated to perform the statutory audit of the accounts; and
- f) decides on any questions which may arise concerning Members of the Board of Superintendence or the Directorate.

CHAPTER IV

THE PRELATE

Art. 9

§1. The Prelate is appointed by the Cardinals' Commission and serves for a five-year term, renewable once. Should the Prelate die, become incapacitated or leave office for whatever reason before his term expires, the Cardinals' Commission shall appoint a new Prelate, who will remain in office until the end of the five-year term.

§2. The Prelate's function is to assist executives and employees in situ to govern and operate in accordance with the founding principles of Catholic ethics and in keeping with the Institute's mission.

To this end, the Prelate:

- a) has his own Office at the Institute; and
- b) has regular contacts with executives and employees, taking care to promote the ethical dimension of their work.

§3. The Prelate also

- a) attends the meetings of the Cardinals' Commission serving as Secretary;
- b) keeps the archives of the Cardinals' Commission at his office and makes them available to the Members of the Cardinals' Commission; and
- c) attends the meetings of the Board of Superintendence.

CHAPTER V

THE BOARD OF SUPERINTENDENCE

Art.10

The Board of Superintendence is responsible for the administration and management of the Institute, and for overseeing and supervising its financial, economic and operational activities.

Art.11

§1. The Board of Superintendence is appointed by the Cardinals' Commission and is made up of seven members, each possessing recognized economic and financial experience and proven trustworthiness, in addition to meeting the requirements expressly provided for by regulations.

§2. Board Members serve for a five-year term, renewable once.

§3. Should a Board Member die, become incapacitated or leave office for whatever reason before his/her term expires, the Cardinals' Commission shall provide for his/her replacement.

§4. The new Board Member will remain in office until the end of the Board's term.

Art.12

§1. Meetings of the Board of Superintendence are convened by the President at least quarterly and whenever he deems necessary, or at the request of three of its Members, notified to the President in writing with an indication of the reasons.

§2. The President convenes meetings by letter, telex or fax or e-mail, indicating their date, time, place and agenda.

§3. Board Members are to receive notification at least ten days before the date of the meeting and, in urgent cases, at least two days in advance.

§4. Board Members present at a Board meeting will be considered to have been duly notified if, on that occasion, the President convenes a future one.

§5. In agreement with the Board Members, the President sets the agenda and coordinates the proceedings of meetings, ensuring that everyone receives adequate information concerning the items on the agenda in good time.

Art. 13

§1. For decisions made by the Board of Superintendence to be valid, the majority of the Board Members must be present.

§2. Decisions are made by absolute majority of the Board Members.

§3. Meetings of the Board of Superintendence may be held via telecommunications media only in cases of proven need and provided that each participant can be clearly identified, is able to intervene in real-time on the matters under discussion and to receive, transmit and review documents duly complying with confidentiality requirements. §4. When the requirements indicated in the previous paragraph are met and all the Board Members agree on this procedure, the Board of Superintendence meeting is considered to be held in the Vatican, where the President or the Vice President, one Board Member and the Sole Secretary of the Board must be present.

§5. The voting procedure is established by the President according to the Implementing Regulations.

§6. Should the President be absent or unable to attend, the Vice-President will preside.

§7. A majority of four Board Members is required for approval of the financial statements and the appointment of the Director and the Vice-Director, which are not allowed in the manner described in §3 above; if a Board Member is unable to attend in person, his/her vote can be expressed in writing.

Art. 14

§1. To take the minutes at meetings, keep them, store them and issue certified copies and extracts thereof, the Board of Superintendence avails itself of the Head of the Legal Department of the Institute, who acts as Sole Secretary of the Board.

§2. It is the duty of the Sole Secretary of the Board to draw up faithful, accurate and complete minutes of all that is discussed and decided during meetings, read them out to those present for their approval at the end of each meeting and sign them together with the President.

§3. The approved and duly signed minutes shall be entered into the Register of Minutes of the Meetings of the Board of Superintendence that shall be kept at the Legal Department of the Institute and will be available to Board Members.

§4. Should the Sole Secretary of the Board be absent or unable to attend, he cannot be replaced by any other official or executive of the Institute, and the minutes of the meeting shall be drawn up by a Board Member designated by the President for this purpose.

Art. 15

The Board of Superintendence reviews and assesses the Directorate's activities and its adherence to regulations, instructions and directives, on the basis of the monthly accounting statements mentioned in Art. 22 §1.

Art. 16
